KMart Corporation d/b/a Super KMart Center (Bradley, Illinois) and United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local 1540, Chartered by the United Food and Commercial Workers International Union, AFL-CIO. Case 33-CA-12286

September 11, 1997

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN GOULD AND MEMBERS FOX AND HIGGINS

Pursuant to a charge filed on June 30, 1997, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint and notice of hearing on July 9, 1997, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 33-RC-4121 (aka Case 3-RC-19623). (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On August 1, 1997, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On August 5, 1997, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. On August 19, 1997, the Respondent filed a response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer and response the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of the Board's unit determination in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Michigan corporation with an office and place of business in Bradley, Illinois, has been engaged in the operation of retail merchandise and grocery stores throughout the United States. During the calendar year ending December 31, 1996, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations, derived gross revenues in excess of $500,000 and purchased and received at its Bradley, Illinois facility goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the State of Illinois.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held May 14, 1997, the Union was certified on May 22, 1997, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full time and regular part time meat cutters, perishable service associates (PSAs) employed in the meat/seafood department, meat wrappers and seafood associates employed by the Employer at its store located at 990 North Kenzie, Bradley, Illinois; but excluding all other employees, managers, office clericals, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

About June 11, 1997, the Union requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since about June 17, 1997, the Respondent has failed and refused. We find that this failure and refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing on and after June 17, 1997, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).
